

Veggie PRIDE Parade

NEW YORK CITY

May 18, 2008

This one's the first in America, so let's show the world how proud we really are. Do it by wearing a festive costume with a message or by carrying a creative slogan. March behind a banner with your group. The parade traverses Greenwich Village and ends in Washington Square Park for a rally of live music, big-name speakers, exhibitors, free food, and fun. At 2:00 p.m., the winners of the costume and poster contests receive fabulous prizes on stage. At 4:00 p.m., Penelo Pea Pod gets married.
